Credit Terms

Net 30 Terms means that payment for the goods should be received within 30 days from the Invoice date. Payments received later than 30 days from the Invoice date are considered "LATE" and are subject to the following penalties:

- Post 30 Day accounts are subject to suspension of any further shipments to the account, particularly if there has been a history of delinquent payment.
- Post 60 Day accounts are considered "DELINQUENT" and will be placed on an immediate DO NOT SHIP list. Future shipments will be suspended until all outstanding invoices are paid in full.
- Post 90 Day accounts are considered "DELINQUENT" and will be suspended and placed on the DO NOT SHIP list. In addition, dealers that reach the post 90 day mark may be required to pay for all future shipments with a credit card. Credit may be restored after a 4 month period provided a history of responsible payment can be shown; any exceptions made will be at the discretion of FuelBelt Management.
- Post 120 day accounts will be sent immediately to our collections agency; any exceptions made will be at the discretion of FuelBelt Management.

Agreement
